of the Linux application ecosystem.

Flathub is Apps

A large, colorful geometric logo consisting of overlapping shapes in yellow, orange, green, blue, purple, and red, forming a complex, abstract shape.

Over 1600 apps
already available.

A dark gray gear icon with a white upward-pointing arrow in the center.

Keeping your apps
up-to-date since 2018

Inter is the primary typeface of Flathub.

Flathub isn't colorful in itself, it lets the apps take the spotlight. The visuals of Flathub are toned down, leaning into the neutral.

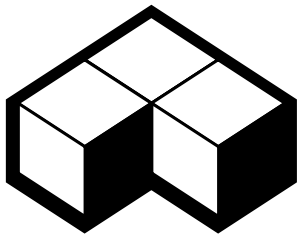

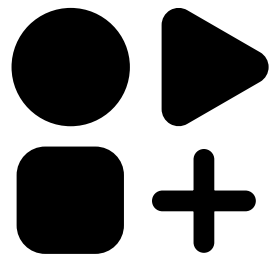

Built by the Devs

Developers wrote the app, they know how to build it. Reproducible, Testable, Solid. Look for the official checkmark for flatpaks maintained by the app developer.
